Santander US™ is a group of diversified financial businesses with 17,000 employees, 4.7 million customers and $132.5 billion in assets. Our purpose is to help people and businesses prosper. We do this by providing financial products and services to consumers, businesses, large corporations and institutions. Our aim is to be the financial institution of choice in each of our markets and to enhance our position as a national leader in auto finance. We are part of the Santander Group*, the Spain-based international retail and commercial bank.

Santander US™ carries out consumer, business, commercial and corporate banking through Santander Bank, N.A., which operates in seven states in the U.S. northeast, and nationwide auto finance through Santander Consumer USA Holdings Inc. (NYSE: SC), a consumer finance company based in Dallas, Texas. Santander US™ also engages in private banking through Banco Santander International in Miami, in commercial banking, consumer finance and broker-dealer activities in Puerto Rico; and in investment banking and markets through a New York branch and Santander Investment Securities, Inc.

Investing in Higher Education

The Santander Group believes the best way to ensure the sustainable development of the communities in which we work is by investing in higher education. Through its global Santander Universities program, the Santander Group has cooperation agreements with more than 1,200 institutions of higher education. In addition, Santander Bank committed $1 million to Partners of the Americas Santander Universities program, the Santander Group has cooperation agreements with more than 1,200 institutions of higher education. In the United States, the Santander Group believes the best way to ensure the sustainable development of the communities in which we work is by investing in higher education. Through its global Santander Universities program, the Santander Group has cooperation agreements with more than 1,200 institutions of higher education. In addition, Santander Bank committed $1 million to Partners of the Americas initiative, which fosters the exchange of up to 100,000 students a year each way between the U.S. and Latin America and the Caribbean.

Engaged with the Communities We Serve

We support and improve the communities in which our customers and colleagues live and work. In 2014, we provided $1.25 billion in new lending and investments to support low- and moderate-income individuals and communities across our footprint. During the same period, we provided over $5 million in grants to more than 300 non-profit organizations and our colleagues donated thousands of hours serving local charities.

Santander’s more than 182,000 colleagues serve 117 million customers through 13,900 branches. For more information about the Santander Group, visit www.santander.com.

*Santander is a member of the Santander Group, a diversified financial services group whose principal subsidiary in the U.S. is Santander Consumer USA Holdings Inc.

Santander US™ is a group of diversified financial businesses with 17,000 employees, 4.7 million customers and $132.5 billion in assets. Our purpose is to help people and businesses prosper. We do this by providing financial products and services to consumers, businesses, large corporations and institutions. Our aim is to be the financial institution of choice in each of our markets and to enhance our position as a national leader in auto finance. We are part of the Santander Group*, the Spain-based international retail and commercial bank.

Santander US™ carries out consumer, business, commercial and corporate banking through Santander Bank, N.A., which operates in seven states in the U.S. northeast, and nationwide auto finance through Santander Consumer USA Holdings Inc. (NYSE: SC), a consumer finance company based in Dallas, Texas. Santander US™ also engages in private banking through Banco Santander International in Miami, in commercial banking, consumer finance and broker-dealer activities in Puerto Rico; and in investment banking and markets through a New York branch and Santander Investment Securities, Inc.

Investing in Higher Education

The Santander Group believes the best way to ensure the sustainable development of the communities in which we work is by investing in higher education. Through its global Santander Universities program, the Santander Group has cooperation agreements with more than 1,200 institutions of higher education. In addition, Santander Bank committed $1 million to Partners of the Americas Santander Universities program, the Santander Group has cooperation agreements with more than 1,200 institutions of higher education. In the United States, the Santander Group believes the best way to ensure the sustainable development of the communities in which we work is by investing in higher education. Through its global Santander Universities program, the Santander Group has cooperation agreements with more than 1,200 institutions of higher education. In addition, Santander Bank committed $1 million to Partners of the Americas initiative, which fosters the exchange of up to 100,000 students a year each way between the U.S. and Latin America and the Caribbean.

Engaged with the Communities We Serve

We support and improve the communities in which our customers and colleagues live and work. In 2014, we provided $1.25 billion in new lending and investments to support low- and moderate-income individuals and communities across our footprint. During the same period, we provided over $5 million in grants to more than 300 non-profit organizations and our colleagues donated thousands of hours serving local charities.

Santander’s more than 182,000 colleagues serve 117 million customers through 13,900 branches. For more information about the Santander Group, visit www.santander.com.

*Santander is a member of the Santander Group, a diversified financial services group whose principal subsidiary in the U.S. is Santander Consumer USA Holdings Inc.