

Dignity Health®

A member of CommonSpirit

Los Angeles, California

A place to learn, live and belong.

Los Angeles offers a dynamic place to live and train in one of the country's most diverse metropolitan regions. The community combines culture, food, arts, innovation, neighborhood identity and access to beaches, mountains and city amenities.

LOCATION

Greater Los Angeles

LIFESTYLE

Diverse, energetic and creative

SETTING

Urban region with beach and mountain access

Why Los Angeles

Residents and trainees learn in a complex, diverse region with deep community needs, rich cultural identity and broad opportunities to serve patients and families.

Community connection

A region of distinct neighborhoods, cultures and community organizations with meaningful opportunities to build relationships.

Outdoor access

Beaches, parks, canyons and mountains offer ways to step outside and reset.

Regional exploration

Museums, music, food, entertainment and Southern California destinations are within reach year-round.

Recharge across the region

From local parks and neighborhood cafes to beach days and mountain hikes, Los Angeles offers many ways to recharge outside of work.

Things to do nearby

- Beaches, parks and canyon trails
- Museums, music, theater and local events
- Restaurants, markets and neighborhood exploration
- Weekend trips across Southern California

Arts, culture and community

Los Angeles is home to arts, culture, food, sports, entertainment and community traditions from around the world. For trainees and families, the area offers a vibrant place to live, train and serve.