

Dignity Health®

A member of CommonSpirit

Northridge, California

A place to learn, live and belong.

Northridge offers a connected place to live and train in the San Fernando Valley. The community combines neighborhood convenience, cultural diversity, university energy and access to greater Los Angeles, beaches and nearby mountain recreation.

LOCATION

San Fernando Valley

LIFESTYLE

Connected, diverse and neighborhood-focused

SETTING

Los Angeles community with regional access

Why Northridge

Residents and trainees learn in a diverse Los Angeles community with strong local identity, convenient amenities and access to the broader cultural and professional opportunities of the region.

Neighborhood connection

A community-oriented part of Los Angeles with local restaurants, parks, shops and everyday conveniences.

Outdoor access

Nearby trails, canyons, beaches and mountains offer ways to get outside and reset.

Regional reach

Greater Los Angeles, the coast and the surrounding valleys are all within reach for exploring.

Recharge across the Valley

From local parks to nearby canyons and coastal escapes, Northridge offers many ways to recharge outside of work.

Things to do nearby

- Parks, trails and canyon hikes
- Restaurants, coffee shops and shopping
- Beaches, museums and live entertainment
- Weekend trips across Southern California

Arts, culture and community

Northridge and the San Fernando Valley are home to diverse communities, local arts, university events, food, music and family-friendly activities. For trainees and families, the area offers a connected place to live, train and serve.