

2027 Pharmacy Residents and Preceptors

Our 2027 pharmacy residents are a talented group of professionals dedicated to advancing patient care and pharmacy practice. These residents will work closely with our exceptional preceptors—experienced pharmacists who bring a wealth of knowledge and expertise to guide, mentor and inspire the next generation of pharmacy leaders.

Meet our 2027 residents

Allie Huisingh, PharmD

Allie is a PGY1 pharmacy resident at CommonSpirit – Memorial Hospital. She completed her undergraduate work and her PharmD at Union University in Jackson, TN. Her clinical interests include oncology and ambulatory care. Outside of work, she enjoys spending time with family and friends, her two golden retrievers, reading, and trying new restaurants around town.

Jasmine Nava, PharmD

Jasmine is a PGY1 pharmacy resident at CommonSpirit – Memorial Hospital. She completed her undergraduate degree at Southern Illinois University and her PharmD at Midwestern University. Her clinical interests include critical care and infectious diseases. Outside of work, she enjoys sharing a delicious meal with family or friends, traveling to sunny places, and binge-watching a good show.

Joshua Rowland, PharmD

Joshua is a PGY1 pharmacy resident at CommonSpirit – Memorial Hospital. He earned a BS in biochemistry from Lee University and a PharmD from South College School of Pharmacy. His clinical interests include emergency medicine, critical care, and infectious diseases. Outside of work, he enjoys cooking, hiking, and spending time with his family and dog.

Rachel Sturdevant, PharmD

Rachel Sturdevant earned her Bachelor of Science in Medicinal Chemistry in 2022 from Northwest Missouri State University, and her Doctor of Pharmacy in 2026 from the University of Missouri – Kansas City. Her clinical interests include psychiatry, emergency medicine, cardiology and administration. She enjoys spending time with her family and friends and exploring new areas. Her favorite animal is a cat, which she named Ghost.

Meet our preceptors

Rachel Anderson, PharmD, BCCCP

Rachel Anderson earned her Bachelor of Science in Pharmaceutical Sciences in 2015 and her Doctor of Pharmacy in 2018 from the University of Mississippi. She completed PGY-1 and PGY-2 Critical Care residencies at Huntsville Hospital and later worked as an Internal Medicine Clinical Specialist at UK Good Samaritan Hospital. Now the lead Emergency Department pharmacist at CommonSpirit – Memorial Hospital, she is a board-certified critical care pharmacist. Her interests include critical care, emergency medicine and cardiology. She precepts the Emergency Medicine learning experience.

Karen Babb, PharmD

Karen Babb earned her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from Mercer University in 2002. Following a pharmacy practice residency at Vanderbilt University Medical Center in 2003, she joined CommonSpirit – Memorial Hospital as a clinical pharmacy specialist. Currently, she serves as the PGY1 residency program director. Dr. Babb is an affiliate faculty member at multiple colleges of pharmacy. She is actively involved in professional organizations, including TPA, TSHP and ASHP, where she has contributed to the Residency Advisory Committee and Membership Engagement Committees for TPA. Additionally, she is a graduate of the ASHP Pharmacy Leadership Academy and, more recently, the ASHP Pharmacy Leadership Institute. She is the preceptor for the Medication Safety, Teaching Certificate, and Research learning experiences.

Sean-Paul Bergeron, PharmD

Sean-Paul Bergeron earned his Bachelor of Science in Biochemistry from Lee University in 2011, followed by his Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Tennessee College of Pharmacy in 2015. He completed his PGY1 residency training at CommonSpirit – Memorial Hospital in 2016, where he continues to serve as a valued member of the pharmacy team. Currently,

Dr. Bergeron holds the role of distribution specialist and serves as a preceptor for both the Hospital Pharmacy Practice longitudinal learning experience and the Orientation learning experience, sharing his expertise and passion for pharmacy practice with the next generation of professionals.

Leisha Carroll, PharmD

Leisha Carroll earned her Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance from East Tennessee State University in 1988 and her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from Samford University McWhorter School of Pharmacy in 1997. She completed a residency in Ambulatory Care with a focus on Disease State Management Programs at the University of Tennessee in 1998. Dr. Carroll joined CommonSpirit – Memorial Hospital as a clinical pharmacy specialist and currently serves as the preceptor for the Pharmacokinetics learning experience. She is the pharmacokinetics lead pharmacist and a member of the antibiotic stewardship team.

Linda Johnson, PharmD, BCIDP

Linda Johnson obtained her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from Rutgers University in 2013. She completed a PGY1 Pharmacy Practice Residency at Atlantic Health System in Morristown, NJ, and an Infectious Diseases Specialty Residency at the University of California, San Francisco. Dr. Johnson leads the antimicrobial stewardship Program at CommonSpirit – Memorial Hospital and is a board-certified infectious diseases pharmacist. She is an affiliate faculty member for the University of Tennessee, Mercer University and East Tennessee State University Colleges of Pharmacy. Dr. Johnson precepts the Infectious Diseases learning experience.

Rachel Kile, PharmD, BCPS

Rachel Kile earned her Bachelor of Science in Business Administration: Marketing from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga in 2009, and her Doctor of Pharmacy from the University of Tennessee College of Pharmacy in 2013. She completed a PGY1 residency at CommonSpirit – Memorial Hospital, before joining the team as clinical staff pharmacist (2014), and later becoming the clinical pharmacy manager (2018). A board-certified pharmacotherapy specialist, Dr. Kile facilitates the Pharmacy & Therapeutics Committee, is actively involved with TPA and TSHP and is a past president of the Chattanooga Area Pharmacist Society. She precepts the Drug Information learning experience and serves as a residency research mentor.

Jaeik Lee, PharmD, BCCCP

Jaeik Lee earned his Bachelor of Pharmacy from Yeungnam University in South Korea in 1993 and completed an endocrinology specialist program at Sookmyung University in 1996. He received his Doctor of Pharmacy from Samford University in 2003 and has been with CommonSpirit – Memorial Hospital since 2005 as a clinical pharmacist. Dr. Lee is a member of the code team and committee, a board-certified critical care pharmacist and the preceptor for the Critical Care learning experience.

Kristin Liveris, PharmD, BCPS

Kristin Liveris earned her Doctorate of Pharmacy from East Tennessee State University in 2020 and completed her PGY1 residency at CommonSpirit – Memorial Hospital in 2021. She remains on staff as a clinical pharmacist, serving on the antimicrobial and opioid stewardship teams. She is board-certified in pharmacotherapy and serves as an affiliate for multiple colleges of pharmacy. Dr. Liveris precepts the Internal Medicine and Opioid Stewardship/Pain Management learning experiences.

Nick Lockhart, PharmD, BCOP

Nick Lockhart earned his Bachelor of Science in Biochemistry and General Mathematics from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga in 2011 and his Doctor of Pharmacy from the University of Tennessee in 2015. He completed a PGY1 residency at Huntsville Hospital and a PGY2 Pediatric Hematology/Oncology residency at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. Dr. Lockhart is the clinical oncology specialist at CommonSpirit – Memorial Hospital and precepts the Oncology learning experience.

Daniel Marsh, PharmD, BCPS

Daniel Marsh earned his Bachelor degree in Biochemistry, Cellular, and Molecular Biology from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, in 2007 and his Doctor of Pharmacy from the University of Tennessee Health Science Center in 2011. He completed his PGY1 residency at CommonSpirit – Memorial Hospital and has since served in roles as Lead Emergency Medicine Pharmacist, Operations Manager, and currently as Market Director of Pharmacy. Dr. Marsh is board certified in pharmacotherapy and is an affiliate faculty member at several colleges of pharmacy. He precepts the Pharmacy Management learning experience.

Angie McGhee, BS, CHIIMP

Angie McGhee earned her Bachelor of Pharmacy from the University of Georgia in 1997. She has been with CommonSpirit – Memorial Hospital since 1999. Dr. McGhee has worked in clinical informatics since 2008 and has her Epic Certification in Willow Inpatient and CHIIMP certification. She is the preceptor for the Informatics learning experience.

Joseph Oh, PharmD

Joseph Oh earned his Doctor of Pharmacy from the University of Mississippi in 2022 and completed his PGY1 residency at CommonSpirit – Memorial Hospital in 2023. He remains on staff as a clinical pharmacist, also serving on the antimicrobial stewardship team. Dr. Oh precepts the Internal Medicine learning experience.

Jenny Parnell, PharmD

Jenny Parnell earned her Doctor of Pharmacy from the University of Tennessee Health Science Center in 2010 and completed her residency at Saint Thomas Hospital in Nashville in 2011. A board-certified pharmacotherapy specialist, Dr. Parnell is an affiliate faculty member at multiple colleges of pharmacy and precepts the Critical Care learning experience.

Nisha Patel, PharmD, BCPS

Nisha Patel earned her Doctor of Pharmacy from the University of Tennessee in 2018 and completed her PGY1 residency at CommonSpirit – Memorial Hospital. She works as a clinical pharmacist and as a PRN oncology/infusion pharmacist at a local hospital. Dr. Patel is a board-certified pharmacotherapy specialist and precepts the Hospital Pharmacy Practice longitudinal learning experience.

Elizabeth Sanders, PharmD, BCPS

Elizabeth Sanders earned her Bachelor of Arts in Spanish from Furman University in 2010 and her Doctor of Pharmacy from the University of Tennessee in 2015. She completed her residency at Blount Memorial Hospital and joined CommonSpirit – Memorial Hospital in 2017, where she is the anticoagulation lead pharmacist and a member of the antibiotic stewardship team. Dr. Sanders is a board-certified pharmacotherapy specialist and precepts the Anticoagulation learning experience.

Matthew Underwood, PharmD, BCPS

Matthew Underwood earned his Doctor of Pharmacy from the University of Tennessee in 2004 and completed his residency at Methodist University Hospital in 2005. He also holds a master's degree in Biochemistry and Molecular Biology and has published extensively. Dr. Underwood has been with CommonSpirit – Memorial Hospital since 2005 and is a board-certified pharmacotherapy specialist. He precepts the Cardiology learning experience.

Megan Whittier, PharmD, BCPS

Megan Whittier earned her Doctor of Pharmacy from the University of Tennessee Health Science Center in 2014 and then completed a PGY1 residency at CommonSpirit – Memorial Hospital. She became an ASHP board-certified pharmacotherapy specialist in 2017 and completed the ASHP Pain Management Certificate Program in 2020. During her time as a preceptor, Dr. Whittier has taught both the Internal Medicine and Opioid Stewardship learning experiences. She currently precepts the longitudinal Hospital Pharmacy Practice Staffing learning experience. She is an affiliate faculty member at multiple colleges of pharmacy.

Diane Woods, PharmD

Diane Woods earned her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Tennessee College of Pharmacy in 2001, following her undergraduate studies at Austin Peay State University. She completed a Pharmacy Practice residency in 2002, focusing on Ambulatory Care, at the Regional Medical Center in Memphis. Dr. Woods began her career at CommonSpirit – Memorial Hospital as a clinical pharmacy specialist and currently serves as the preceptor for the Nutrition Support learning experience. She has been dedicated to precepting since the residency program's inception at Memorial Hospital in 2011.