2026 Pharmacy Residents and Preceptors

Our 2026 pharmacy residents are a talented group of professionals dedicated to advancing patient care and pharmacy practice. These residents will work closely with our exceptional preceptors—experienced pharmacists who bring a wealth of knowledge and expertise to guide, mentor and inspire the next generation of pharmacy leaders.

Meet our 2026 Residents

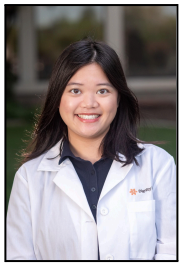

Genella Alviad, PharmD

Genella is a PGY1 pharmacy resident at Dignity Health St. Joseph's Medical Center - Stockton, CA. She was raised in Livermore, California. She earned her Doctorate of Pharmacy degree at University of the Pacific Thomas J. Long School of Pharmacy. During pharmacy school, she was an intern at Rite Aid. She is looking forward to growing her clinical knowledge and participating in interdisciplinary care. Her professional interests include cardiology and transitions of care. Outside of pharmacy, she loves to read comics, collect figures and Magic The Gathering cards, and play video games.

Megan Han, PharmD

Megan is a PGY1 pharmacy resident at Dignity Health St. Joseph's Medical Center - Stockton, CA. She was raised in Sacramento, California. She completed her Doctorate of Pharmacy at the University of the Pacific. During pharmacy school, she was an intern at South Sacramento Kaiser. Her professional interests include inpatient and ambulatory care pharmacy. Outside of pharmacy, her interests include hiking, fostering dogs, sitcoms, and trying new foods with friends.

Sabrina Ton, PharmD

Sabrina is a PGY1 pharmacy resident at Dignity Health St. Joseph's Medical Center - Stockton, CA. She earned her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of the Pacific. During pharmacy school, she worked as a pharmacy intern at Walgreens. Her clinical interests include oncology, emergency medicine, and critical care. Outside of pharmacy, Sabrina enjoys bullet journaling, exploring new cafés and matcha spots, visiting amusement parks, and watching movies.

Meet our preceptors

Khaja Ahmed, B.Pharm, MS, MBA

Khaja is an experienced pharmacy leader who worked as the Systems Director of Pharmacy and Administrator for Community Medical Centers (CMC) in Fresno/Clovis, CA overseeing all aspects of pharmacy operations. Khaja served as a member of the Board of Trustee for California Health Science University (CHSU) from 2013 to 2024. He later joined Dignity Health in 2019 as the Director - Central CA region overseeing St. Joseph's Medical Center and St. Joseph's Behavioral Health Center, Stockton CA. Khaja has extensive research experience from his days at the University of North Dakota and has published articles and presented at national and international meetings. He serves as a preceptor for pharmacy residents on Pharmacy Management rotation. Khaja enjoys traveling, spending time with family and playing chess.

Rose Machado, PharmD, BCPS

Rose Machado serves as the Clinical Pharmacy Manager and Residency Program Director. Rose received her Doctor of Pharmacy from the Ohio State University. Upon graduation in 2004, she completed a pharmacy residency at the San Francisco Medical Center. Rose precepts various longitudinal learning experiences for the pharmacy residents and the Hospital Pharmacy experience for APPEstudents. She enjoys outdoor activities, including hiking, and sports.

Matthew Mitchell, PharmD, BCPS

Matt serves as the Clinical Pharmacist Lead. Matt completed his Doctor of Pharmacy degree from Thomas J. Long School of Pharmacy at the University of the Pacific in 2010. Matt precepts pharmacy residents on adult TPN monitoring/IV room experience and advanced pharmacy practice rotations. Outside of pharmacy he enjoys spending time with family and outdoor activities.

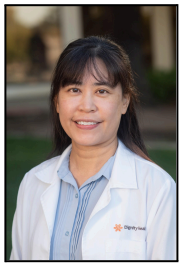

Yvonne Mai, PharmD, MS, BCGP, BCACP, FCSHP

Yvonne Mai earned her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from Thomas J. Long School of Pharmacy at University of the Pacific in 2013 and went on to complete a two year academic fellowship/M.S. program in Pharmacoeconomics and Health Care Outcomes with School of Pharmacy. She is currently an Associate Professor of Pharmacy Practice at Thomas J. Long School of Pharmacy and acts as the School's APPE coordinator for the Stockton Region. She serves as the preceptor for the teaching certificate program in addition to assisting residents with designing their major resident research project. She is also involved with the local CSHP chapter and sits on the Journal of the American Pharmacists Association (JAPhA) Editorial Advisory Board. Outside of pharmacy she enjoys traveling, basketball, and hiking.

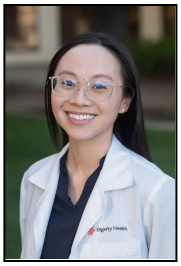

Richard Ishimaru, PharmD

Richard is an emergency medicine specialist committed to evidence-based pharmacotherapy and interdisciplinary care. He received his Doctor of Pharmacy in 2022 from UCSF, he then completed his PGY1 Acute Care and PGY2 Emergency Medicine residencies at UC Davis Medical Center in 2023 and 2024. He precepts pharmacy residents and students on emergency rotations and participates in a system-wide committee to advance Emergency Medicine practice. In addition to his healthcare career, he is in his 16th year of service in the United States Air Force Reserve and enjoys rock climbing, skiing, and traveling.

Katherine Lee, PharmD

Katherine received her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of California, San Francisco and completed a pharmacy residency at the University of California Irvine Medical Center. She serves as a preceptor for pharmacy residents and students on infectious disease and antimicrobial stewardship rotations. She enjoys traveling around the world.

Megan Cabacungan, PharmD

Megan Cabacungan earned her Doctor of Pharmacy degree in 2015 from the University of the Pacific Thomas J. Long School of Pharmacy. She completed her PGY1 pharmacy residency at St Joseph's in 2016. Megan works with new residents to orient them to the electronic health records system and complete medication history training. She can also be found acting as a stand-in preceptor for coverage of primary preceptors and often helps co-precept major projects. Outside of pharmacy, her interests include crafting and trying new foods.

Jason Ellison, PharmD

Jason earned his Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of California, San Francisco (UCSF) in 2007 and completed a PGY1 pharmacy residency at UC Davis Medical Center in 2008. He practices in emergency medicine, where his professional interests include evidence-based pharmacotherapy, medication safety, and interdisciplinary patient care. He serves as a preceptor for pharmacy residents and student pharmacists on emergency medicine rotations and participates on several hospital committees dedicated to advancing clinical practice and patient safety. Outside of pharmacy, his interests include film photography, music, playing guitar, gardening, and cheering on Aston Villa.

Marisa Mitchell, PharmD, BCPS

Marisa Mitchell earned her Doctor of Pharmacy Degree from Thomas J. Long School of Pharmacy at the University of the Pacific in 2011. She completed a PGY1 residency at University Medical Center of Southern Nevada in 2012. Marisa serves as a preceptor for pharmacy residents on cardiology and critical care rotations. Outside of pharmacy her interests include: reading, cooking, and art.

Lisa Chang, PharmD

Lisa Chang serves as a Clinical Pharmacist Specialist. Lisa completed her Doctor of Pharmacy from Thomas J Long School of Pharmacy at the University of Pacific. She is passionate about interdisciplinary collaboration and safe medication use. She is a co-preceptor for the Cardiology learning experience.

Christie Stuhmer, PharmD

Christie Stuhmer serves as a Clinical Pharmacist Specialist. She earned her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from University of the Pacific: Thomas J. Long School of Pharmacy in 2010. She completed a PGY1 residency at St Joseph's Medical Center in 2011. Christie precepts PGY1 residents in internal medicine and critical care elective rotations. She values the opportunity to collaborate with interdisciplinary teams and engage directly with patients. Outside of pharmacy, she enjoys reading and spending time with her family and friends.

Stephanie Wong, PharmD, BCEMP

Stephanie Wong completed her PharmD at University of Iowa College of Pharmacy and her PGY1 residency at UW Health SwedishAmerican Hospital in Rockford, Illinois. She is currently one of the emergency medicine clinical pharmacists and precepts pharmacy residents and pharmacy students. Stephanie is also the pharmacy elective rotation preceptor for the emergency medical residents. She participates in hospital committees that support quality of care by physicians and emergency medical residents. Outside of work, her professional involvements include working doing continuing education review for the EMPoweRx conference and peer review for the Journal of Acute Care Pharmacotherapy. Her hobbies include traveling and trying new boba places