

Welcome to Pottsville

A guide to your new home and workplace

Aged Care

Pottsville, NSW

Be at the heart of it in Pottsville.

An idyllic little beach town tucked away between Byron Bay and the Gold Coast, Pottsville is generally considered the hidden gem of NSW.

Its beaches are perfect for surfers looking for a less crowded wave, and Pottsville Creek is ideal for stand-up paddle boarding, kayaking, or simply an afternoon dip. Kilometres of white sandy beaches stretch along the coastline, and the sheer vastness means beachgoers are treated to their own little patch, rather than battling the crowds for a spot on the sand. With the perfect opportunity for work-life balance, you'd be hard-pressed to find a better place to call home.

Pottsville hosts various community events and festivals throughout the year, including markets, music concerts, and cultural celebrations.

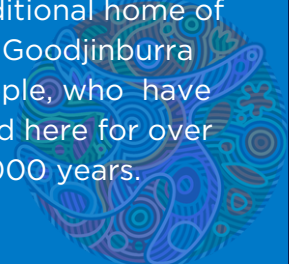

115
kms from Brisbane

7,209 residents

16.9
kms of beach coastline

Pottsville is the traditional home of the Goodjinburra people, who have lived here for over 10,000 years.

Your new workplace in Pottsville

Welcome to Bupa Pottsville, a picturesque care home nestled in an idyllic little beach town between Byron Bay and the Gold Coast.

Pottsville is a small, community-driven home with plenty of connection to the town. Our team loves to get involved and are instrumental in creating special experiences for our residents. This includes day trips to shops and cafes, market days, family days, and animal farm days.

Our team loves to go the extra mile to ensure our residents are their healthiest and happiest. For example, we have developed our Jolly Totts program, which brings the joy and energy of children to the home. We are always open to ideas from our team and provide support to get them off the ground.

We're a team of extraordinary individuals, and we aim to make everyone feel welcome with morning tea sessions to help you get to know the rest of the team in a casual setting. You'll be supported to build strong relationships with the residents by being present during meal times. We also have a coffee van that serves fresh cups of specialty coffee every morning. Because we know it's important to start the day right, and who doesn't love coffee?

We can't wait to work with you!

Pottsville is hard to describe with words alone, with stunning beaches and beaches and picturesque landscapes in every direction. What's more, during the months of April through November you are most likely to experience good weather with pleasant average temperatures that fall between 20°C and 26°C.

Getting Around

While Pottsville's public transport network is not as comprehensive as in larger cities, there are still some options for getting around Pottsville and the surrounding area.

Local bus services

Pottsville is served by local bus services operated by Busways. These bus services connect Pottsville with neighbouring towns and suburbs, providing transportation options for residents and visitors.

There are plenty of taxi and ride sharing services available, and most residents use a car to get around.

Schools

Pottsville, like many areas in Australia, likely has a mix of public and private schools catering to students from kindergarten through to high school.

Public schools

Public schools in Australia generally follow the Australian curriculum, which covers key learning areas such as English, mathematics, science, humanities and social sciences, the arts, languages, and health and physical education.

Private schools

Private schools in Pottsville include independent schools (which are not affiliated with any particular religious or educational authority) as well as Catholic or other religious-affiliated schools. Private schools often have more autonomy over their curriculum and may offer additional extracurricular activities.

Schools in the area might have a more relaxed, rural atmosphere compared to schools in urban areas. This can offer a unique environment for students to learn and grow.

Community involvement

Schools in smaller towns like Pottsville often have strong ties to the local community. This can result in a close-knit school community with opportunities for parent involvement, community events, and partnerships with local organisations.

Outdoor education

Given Pottsville's coastal location and proximity to natural environments such as beaches and national parks, schools in the area emphasize outdoor education and environmental awareness.

Sports and extracurricular activities

Schools in Pottsville offer a range of sports teams and extracurricular activities for students to participate in, such as music ensembles, drama clubs, and community service projects.

Dining and nightlife

As Pottsville is a small coastal town, the dining and nightlife scene may be more relaxed compared to larger cities. But there is still much to experience.

Local cafés and restaurants

Pottsville has a selection of local cafés and restaurants offering a variety of cuisines. These ranges from casual beachside eateries serving fish and chips to more upscale dining options featuring fresh seafood and local produce. Given Pottsville's coastal location, seafood dishes are the clear stars of the town's dining scene.

Pubs and bars

While Pottsville may not have a bustling nightlife scene, there are a few pubs and bars where locals gather. These establishments offer a laid-back atmosphere, live music on weekends, and pub grub.

Pottsville hosts community events, such as farmers' markets, food festivals, and cultural celebrations, where residents and visitors can enjoy local food and entertainment.

With Pottsville's pleasant climate and coastal setting, outdoor dining options are popular. Restaurants and cafés have outdoor seating areas where patrons can enjoy their meals while taking in views of the ocean or nearby parks.

Pottsville is also known for its family-friendly vibe, and dining options cater to families with children. You will find restaurants with kids' menus, play areas, or activities to keep young diners entertained.

The dining and nightlife scene in Pottsville is relaxed and casual, reflecting the town's laid-back coastal lifestyle. Visitors can expect friendly service and a welcoming atmosphere.

Employment opportunities for your family

Pottsville, being a smaller coastal town in New South Wales, may have fewer employment opportunities compared to larger urban centres. However, there are still several industries and sectors that offer job opportunities in and around Pottsville, with larger towns only a short drive away.

Hospitality and tourism

With its picturesque beaches and coastal location, Pottsville attracts tourists and visitors throughout the year. As a result, there are opportunities for employment in hospitality businesses such as hotels, resorts, restaurants, cafes, bars, and tour operators.

Retail

Pottsville has a small retail sector that includes shops, boutiques, supermarkets, and convenience stores. Job opportunities may be available in retail sales, customer service, stocking, and management positions.

Healthcare

Healthcare services are essential in any community, and Pottsville is no exception. Job opportunities may exist in medical clinics, pharmacies, aged care facilities, and other healthcare settings for roles such as doctors, nurses, allied health professionals, and support staff.

Education

Pottsville has educational institutions such as schools and childcare centres that may have employment opportunities for teachers, educators, administrators, and support staff.

Construction and trades

As Pottsville continues to grow and develop, there may be opportunities in the construction industry for tradespeople such as carpenters, electricians, plumbers, builders, and landscapers.

Real estate and property management

With an increasing population and demand for housing, there may be opportunities in real estate agencies and property management firms for sales agents, property managers, and administrative staff.

Agriculture and farming

The surrounding region of Pottsville has a strong agricultural presence, with opportunities in farming, horticulture, and agricultural services.

Professional services

While fewer in number, there may be opportunities in professional services such as accounting, legal services, consulting, and financial services for professionals willing to commute to nearby towns.

Remote work and freelancing

With Australia's advanced digital connectivity, residents of Pottsville may also explore opportunities for remote work or freelancing in fields such as writing, graphic design, software development, and online tutoring.

To explore opportunities, Australia's biggest job boards are Indeed and Seek.

Shopping

While Pottsville offers a limited shopping scene compared to larger cities, there are still several options for those looking to shop locally. The larger supermarkets and shopping centres are only a short drive or bus away around Tweed Heads.

Pottsville Village Shopping Centre

This is the main shopping hub in town, offering a range of retail stores, cafes, and essential services. Visitors can find supermarkets, pharmacies, bakeries, fashion boutiques, and more within the centre.

Local markets

Pottsville hosts regular markets where visitors can browse a variety of goods from local artisans, growers, and vendors. These markets often feature fresh produce, handmade crafts, clothing, jewellery, and unique souvenirs. The Pottsville Beach Markets and Pottsville Community Market are popular options for shopping and supporting local businesses.

Surf shops

Given Pottsville's coastal location and popularity as a surfing destination, there are several surf shops in town offering a range of surf gear, beachwear, and accessories. You can find everything you need for a day at the beach, including surfboards, wetsuits, swimwear, and sunscreen.

Art galleries and boutiques

While Pottsville may not have a large shopping district, there are often local art galleries, boutiques, and specialty shops showcasing the works of talented artists and designers. Visitors can explore these establishments to find unique artwork, home decor, fashion items, and gifts to find unique artwork, home decor, fashion items, and gifts.

Parks and recreation

Pottsville offers a variety of parks and recreational activities, largely centred around its coastal setting and natural beauty. Here are some popular parks and recreation options in Pottsville:

Pottsville Beach

The main attraction in Pottsville is its beautiful beach, offering a long stretch of sandy shoreline perfect for swimming, sunbathing, beachcombing, and picnicking. It's also a popular spot for surfing, fishing, and beach sports.

Black Rocks Beach

Located just south of Pottsville Beach, Black Rocks Beach is known for its stunning scenery and unique rock formations. You can explore the rocky coastline, go for walks along the beach, and enjoy panoramic views of the ocean.

Mooball Creek

Mooball Creek is a picturesque estuary that runs through Pottsville, offering opportunities for kayaking, stand-up paddleboarding, and wildlife watching. The calm waters of the creek are ideal for leisurely paddling and exploring the mangrove-lined banks.

Whale watching

During the winter months, Pottsville becomes a prime spot for whale watching as humpback whales migrate along the coast. You can often spot these majestic creatures breaching and spouting from the shore or you may join a whale watching tour for a closer look.

Pottsville Environmental Park

A peaceful green space located inland from the beach this park features walking trails, picnic areas, and native vegetation, providing opportunities for birdwatching and enjoying the natural surroundings.

Recreational reserves

Pottsville has several recreational reserves and sports fields where you can enjoy outdoor activities such as soccer, cricket, tennis, and basketball. These reserves often have playgrounds, barbecue facilities, and open spaces for family gatherings and community events.

Cycling and walking paths

Pottsville has a network of cycling and walking paths that meander through the town and along the coastline. These paths offer scenic views and opportunities for exercise, recreation, and exploring the local area on foot or by bike.

Fishing

Fishing enthusiasts can try their luck at Pottsville Beach or Mooball Creek, where they may catch a variety of fish species, including bream, whiting, flathead, and tailor. Fishing from the beach, rocks, or estuary banks is a popular pastime in Pottsville.

Things to do in Pottsville

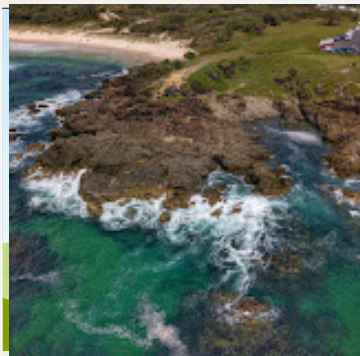

[Pottsville
local markets](#)

Pottsville Beach

[Tweed Coast Surf
School](#)

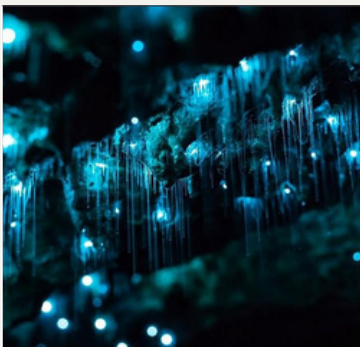

[Hastings Point
Headland](#)

Visit Byron Bay

Mooball National Park

Explore the glowworm caves

[Currumbin Wildlife
Sanctuary](#)

Visit Brisbane

Useful links

Local council

<https://www.tweed.nsw.gov.au/home>

Social and community

Pottsville Facebook Community Group

Australian Bureau of Statistics

For census and cost of living data.
<http://www.abs.gov.au/>

Property

realestate.com.au
domain.com.au

Bupa links

Bupa Care Services Australia

Here you will find information about each of our care homes and more about working for Bupa.

Avature

Login to update your profile and check the status of your application.

Bupa Careers

Why Bupa

Bupa respectfully acknowledges the Traditional Custodians of the land on which we live and work. We pay our respects to Elders past, present, and emerging – for they hold the memories, the traditions, the culture, and the hopes of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples across the nation.

