

Avoid Fraudulent Recruitment Agencies: Procurement Ally Information

We have recently become aware of fraudulent entities around the world claiming to be affiliated with Disney Cruise Line. In an effort to help get the appropriate information to our applicants, we have compiled a list of fraudulent agencies to be aware of. If you are engaged in dialogue with one of the agencies on this list, they are not affiliated with Disney Cruise Line and they are not legally authorized to recruit for us. Thus, you should discontinue all contact with them immediately.

Due to the extensive amount of positions that we recruit for, many are not posted on our website. As a result, we work directly with a select list of approved Procurement Allies around the world, who are authorized to recruit for Disney Cruise Line. These Procurement Allies are located in various countries and work closely with us to identify candidates who match our specific hiring needs. Our list of official, approved Procurement Allies can be found by clicking “Contact a Procurement Ally” on www.dcljobs.com. Please contact the nearest Procurement Ally agency to your permanent residence.

For more information about working with Disney Cruise Lines and to apply, please visit our website at www.dcljobs.com.

Thank you!
