SUPPLY CHAIN LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

Raytheon Company is a technology and innovation leader specializing in defense, civil government and cybersecurity solutions. The company sells products and services to customers in 80 nations, and its international opportunities and pursuits are growing.

Raytheon's Values are: Trust, Respect, Collaboration, Innovation, and Accountability

The Supply Chain Leadership Development Program (SCLDP) is a two-year rotational program designed to bring talented professionals into Raytheon's supply chain organization and develop them into future leaders at the company. The Raytheon Supply Chain organization's mission is to develop equitable business solutions that deliver affordable, quality products and services on-time, every time.

A Supply Chain Professional is the face of Raytheon to supplier partners. The SCLDP is structured to provide rich development opportunities through targeted experiential and applied learning. Assignments may provide the opportunity to work with International customers and suppliers.

Members of the SCLDP will rotate into two, 12-month challenging assignments. Assignments are designed to provide experience and develop competencies within the following disciplines:

- Material Program Management
- Subcontract Management
- Strategic Sourcing
- Compliance and Governance
- Logistics and Asset Management
- Technology & Automation
- Supplier Diversity

The SCLDP features the following structured development processes:

- Rotations to multiple business areas across the U.S.
- Executive exposure and dialogue with senior leadership
- Functional and cross-functional leadership training
- Facility tours, training seminars, and peer mentoring across the SCLDP alumni network
- Cross-functional learning opportunities and engagements
