
We have an unrelenting focus on developing and training our employees to help them learn new skills and capabilities, grow within the organization, and ultimately succeed in everything they set out to do. We recognize that our future growth depends on our ability to build industry leading knowledge, skills and careers. That’s why we invest heavily in the success of our people through continuous learning, leadership development, stretch assignments and flexible career paths that help people push their limits and realise their full potential.

Our Commitment to Learning

3.1 Million
Learning hours invested annually

70.4
Learning hours per employee

$12 Million
Annual investment in learning

The most prestigious awards in the Learning & Development industry globally

- Best Talent Strategy & Governance’ for positive workplace talent strategy
- ‘Best Team Development Program’ for effective fostering of team synergies
- ‘Best Results of a Learning Program’

Exciting and enriching training opportunities every step of the way!

Leadership Development
Nurturing leadership qualities in high potential talent

Education @ Work
Enabling employees to learn while they earn

Domain Expertise
Enhancing core skills or acquiring new skills for bigger roles

Process Improvement
Strengthening our DNA of Lean Six Sigma

Professional Skills
Soft skills training to be better professionals